

Sponsor a Room at the Kick4Life Centre

In September 2011 Lucas Radebe, former captain of South Africa, officially opened the new Lesotho Football for Hope Centre in Maseru, Lesotho. The sport, health and education facility provides a dedicated setting for Kick4Life to deliver its programmes to orphans and vulnerable young people for many years to come.

Kick4Life is now offering the opportunity for people and companies to leave a permanent legacy by sponsoring a bedroom in the planned conference and accommodation building which is being constructed adjacent to the Football for Hope Centre. The rooms will enable children from remote mountainous areas to attend residential courses at the centre, as well hosting tour groups that provide a vital source of income for Kick4Life.

For $10,000 or £6,000 a permanent plaque with your name will be fixed to one of the bedroom doors and a framed photo of the unveiling of the plaque at the centre will be sent to you. The room will also be available for your friends and family for one week every year! A total of 12 bedrooms are available for sponsorship. Construction is due to be complete by January 2012.
